

It is sad that the only way an existing enterprise, broadcast radio can compete with a upstart is through legislation. I have had XM Radio for over one year. Little or no commercials with high quality. What every happened to the old American concept of competition.